

My Private Diary During the Siege of Paris, Vol. 2 of 2 (Classic Reprint)

Felix M Whitehurst

Excerpt from My Private Diary During the Siege of Paris, Vol. 2 of 2 Government has been forced to put the 20th arrondissement in commission, it having chosen as Maire and assistants Ranvier, Flourens, Milliere, and Le Francais, all of whom are in custody for an attempt on the 31st of October to reproduce the drama of the 4th of September the right of translating which seems to have been reserved. All, I say: I should write, all hut Flourens, who agrees with Tacitus, that distance dignifies dignity, and so, not to put too fine a point on it, has cut and run. Horrible abuse of the Empire and the Emperor - admission to me a Voreille by a National Guard, that the Emperor has been the best friend France has had for ages, and that to drive France you must put the reins down to the bottom bar. A dinner with a menu last night. In this case individual enterprise did not burst up, as it did in the case of our amateur cannon-casters. Sixty per cent, of the guns made by private contract for the Government of Defence have proved to be most inoffensive, having all burst at the first essay! We absolutely, in spite of a miserable night, assembled six English ladies and men, and one Frenchman. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
